

MAKING STEPS TO CLOSE OPERATIONS ON VICTORY NOTES

To Close up Issue of Notes and Stamps to 1918 Issue

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 7.—The treasury moved another step toward concluding its refunding operations in connection with the victory notes and war saving stamps of the 1918 issue. Two new issues of treasury certificates aggregating approximately $60,000,000, were announced to be the March financing and at the same time to aid in carrying over the treasury to the middle of May when the last of the victory notes mature.

One issue will bear four and one-half percent interest and the other, bearing an interest rate of four and one-half percent, will mature March 15, 1924.

Outstanding certificates maturing March 15 of the victory notes will be accepted in exchange for the new issues.

About $355,000,000 of treasury certificates will fall due March 15 incident with the tax payment which the treasury estimates will bring in about $400,000,000.

On the same date liberty bonds interest aggregating about $135,000,000 is due while there are outstanding something like $90,000,000 in victory notes which are called for redemption last September and more than $75,000,000 in war saving stamps which matured January 1, remaining unredemmed. The treasury therefore must make arrangements to meet nearly $700,000,000 in maturities or have cash on hand to take care of them and at the same time be prepared to carry on the usual government expenditures.

Further Financing
The close margin on which the treasury will operate after March 15, as indicated by comparison of the anticipated income and known liabilities makes certain that further financing will take place. May upon the maturity of the remainder of the victory notes, if treasury officials are optimistic and assert that while further financing in the nature of certificates issued will have to take place in May, the recent ready reductions made in outstanding paper of short maturity have placed the government in a position satisfactory to those charged with the administration of its finances. The maturing victory notes will have to be largely refunded but the amounts believed, will be small as compared with treasury certificate operations in the past.

A formal statement by the treasury declared that when the early financing is completed there will still be outstanding approximately one billion dollars in certificates of indebtedness. At this amount, the statement said is remarkably low for the stage of the government's war financing.

JURY FINDS WOMAN GUILTY OF MURDER

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 7.—The jury exonerated by the court to try Mrs. Paulette Saludes for the murder of Oscar Martelliere, a broker, with their heads instead of their hearts, today returned a verdict of guilty of second degree murder, carrying a prison sentence of 20 years to life in lieu of death in the electric chair.

As she was being led back to the Tombs from the court room, Mrs. Saludes, who several times earlier she shot the broker last October, attempted suicide, took from her glove a small box believed to have contained poison, and swallowed it.

The Tombs physician after examining Mrs. Saludes, and a paste and in the box she carried, said she believed that she had swallowed a brass polish containing arsenic, although the contents of the box looked like rouge. Groaning and apparently in great pain, a woman was carried by two equestrians to the Tombs.

After physicians had applied a stomach pump and pronounced Mrs. Saludes out of danger, she made another attempt at suicide by slashing her head against the iron walls of her cell in the Tombs.

Lieutenant Farrer resided in Washington while Sullivan came from Chicago. The district judge has no details further in to state that both bodies had been recovered.

AWAITING FULL INFORMATION ON TURKISH TREATY

Before Making Decision on Steps to Be Taken

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 7.—Administration officials are awaiting full information as to the situation relative to the Lausanne treaty between Turkey and the allied governments before reaching a decision as to when steps toward negotiation of a new treaty with Turkey will be undertaken. Official word was still lacking today as to the action of the Ankara parliament in voting to reject the Lausanne peace pact.

It was said officially that while restoration of peace between Turkey and the powers appeared to be a desirable condition precedent to negotiation of a new treaty it was not an essential. The United States has never been at war with Turkey and its situation is wholly different from that of the European powers.

In sending Ambassador Child and his colleagues to Lausanne to participate in the treaty negotiations, however, the Washington government recognized that many of its problems as to Turkey were similar to those of those powers. It was hoped that a peace pact would be worked out and ratified that would form a good basis for the Turkish-American treaty. Until the final determination of the Ankara authorities to the peace treaty is definitely known here and the resulting situation can be scrutinized there is little prospect that the state department will take up the matter of negotiation of a treaty with the present Turkish government.

GIRL'S TEMPERATURE STILL RUNNING HIGH

(By The Associated Press)
ESCANABA, Mich., March 7.—Dr. Harry B. Defnet, who is in charge of the case of Miss Evelyn Lyons, Escanaba girl, who has had a temperature of 114 for more than two weeks today stated that reports given out last night to newspapers that her temperature had reached 115 when a special thermometer was broken were not authentic and authentic and were not given out by him.

The clinical thermometer used by him was broken, "but that is not unusual thru rapid expansion," he said. "It not infrequently happens," he said.

The highest absolute record that may be taken as authentic was reached last night when the temperature registered 115 by a special thermometer loaned to me by the local weather bureau," the doctor said.

At 5 o'clock this afternoon Miss Lyons' temperature was 114.2; pulse 120, blood pressure 8.122; D.S.E. appetite fair; mentality normal.

SNOW STORM BRINGS DEATH IN NEW YORK

(By The Associated Press)

The storm had blown out to sea before the sun went down.

A heavy northeast gale caused shipping to hug harbor.

Schools in this and other cities remained closed as a result of the storm.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO REAPPORTMENT THE STATE FAILS

Joint Resolution Voted Down By House 79 to 66

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 7.—Another attempt for re-apportionment in Illinois, to give citizens representation in the legislature in conformity with the 1920 federal census, proved abortive this afternoon.

By a vote of 79 to 66 the house of representatives refused to consider a joint resolution offered by Representative Schnackenberg, Chicago, providing for appointment of a joint committee of house and senate to work out re-apportionment.

Members from Cook county, which would gain in representation should re-apportionment be effected voted solidly for the proposal, but downstate men successfully opposed it. Several representatives not from Chicago, including Mrs. Lottie Holman O'Neill of Downers Grove and Robert Scholes of Peoria, sided with the resolution's proponents.

Representative Lyon, Chicago, announced after the roll call that he would move a re-consideration later but opponents of re-apportionment were confident the plan was dead so far as this session is concerned.

After the vote the house adjourned. Previously it had heard reported favorably H. B. 75, Sonneman, appropriating to the department of agriculture $70,276.09 for state aid to county fairs, and a few others.

Fixes Weight of Loads. House Bill 27, Plag, decreasing maximum gross weight permitted on road surface and decreased length of trailers; providing that agricultural implements and threshing machines driven or pulled on roads may exceed maximum width of eight feet, was reported by the roads and bridge committee with the recommendation that it do "not" pass.

The committee introduced a substitute bill which exempts agricultural implements from width of wheels that may use hard roads.

Representative Holdeman, Morris, introduced a bill creating a department of apurries inspector. It was sent to the committee on efficiencies and economy.

A bill providing for removal from office of county and municipal officers introduced by Representative Ben Smith, Pekin, was referred to the judiciary committee.

Representative Tice, Greenville brought in a bill to appropriate $350,000 for Dikes at Beardstown. It was sent to the appropriations committee.

In a measure by Senator Jewell, Lewistown, air flying would be controlled and craft made amendable to laws of the land below. Trick flying over a thickly congested community would be prohibited and punishable by a $1,000 fine. Flyers would be barred from flying so low as to be dangerous to persons and property.

Senator Kessinger, Aurora, introduced two bills similar to two now in the house. One would require pneumatic tires on motor vehicles on improved highways, except agricultural implements. The other limits the weight of loads of motor vehicles. Both went to the highway transportation committee.

The senate passed Senator Searcy's joint resolution designating the second Sunday in May as "Mother's Day."

PEACE PROPOSALS ISSUED IN IRELAND

(By The Associated Press)
CORK, March 7.—Peace proposals signed by many of the Catholic clergy and addressed to the leader of the southern Republicans, Commandant General Tom Barry by Father Duggan of Cork were issued here this evening. The immediate cessation of hostilities is sought by halting the activities and operations of the Irish Republican army and the dumping of arms and munitions by the Republicans under charge of battalion commanders who will be responsible that they shall not be used against the free state government and forces.

After a general election is held the arms and munitions are to be handed over to the elected government.

WOMAN SENTENCED TO CARE FOR CHILDREN

Fresno, Cal., March 7.—Mrs. Elizabeth Espinola, convicted of bootlegging on her own confession was sentenced to spend five hundred days in her own home, caring for her four little children by Police Judge J. G. Critchton today. The woman first was fined $500, the court then discovering that she could not pay it. The fine was remitted and she was committed to her own home to work out the fine at the rate of $1 a day.

Hear Arguments on Womans 8 Hour Law

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 7.—Proponents and opponents of the Jewell-O'Neill bill limiting the hours of employment for women to eight hours a day gave their views this afternoon before the joint senate and house committee on industrial affairs.

Among the speakers favoring the bill were Agnes Nestor, president of the Illinois Division of the Women's Trade Union League, Mrs. Fred Grant, chairman of the industrial welfare committee of the Chicago Woman's club, J. H. Walker, president of the Illinois Federation of Labor and Victor H. Olander, secretary of the federation.

Objections to such a law included: E. J. Barkow, of the Gerlach-Barkow company of Joliet, advertising specialties, and Mrs. Clara J. Osborn, representing the Western Clock company, LaSalle, Ill.

Mr. Walker declared industry would be benefited and not injured by the eight hour day for women. He stressed the bill as a necessary humane measure. Mrs. Grant argued the proposed law would give mothers in industry more time to devote to their children and thus reduce the number of delinquents.

Mr. Olander charged the Illinois Bell Telephone company with intimidation of employees with respect to the women's bill. He said he had received information from Cairo and Decatur that operators there were being forced to protest the measure.

Miss Stella Harris, an employee of the Mid-West Tailoring company, Chicago, termed the bill "class legislation" and said it was unnecessary and undesirable.

ALTON RECEIVERS ORDERED BY COURT TO PAY INTEREST

Judge Carpenter Orders $675,000 Paid to Trust Company

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 7.—Federal Judge Carpenter today issued an order requiring the receivers of the Chicago & Alton railroad company to pay $675,000 to the Illinois Trust & Savings bank, as interest at 3 per cent due on a mortgage of $45,000,000 held by the bank.

Receivers for the road were appointed last August. The order today resulted from a bill filed by attorneys on behalf of the Farmers Loan & Trust company bank of New York City. The bill asked that the earnings of the railroad be impounded to secure the payment of interest due on a second mortgage of $22,000,000 held by the New York bank. This interest, the bill alleged, was due on January 1, and is unpaid.

The interest due the Illinois Trust & Savings bank was payable October 1, of last year.

Attorneys representing the receivers stated in court today that since the company has been in the hands of the receivers it has made money over and above operating expenses. They contended that they were unable to pay the interest on both mortgages now and asked instructions as to whether they should pay the interest on one of them. Judge Carpenter's order followed.

BATHHOUSE JOHN WANTS PROTECTION

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 7.—Parodying Patrick Henry's famous utterance, Alderman John J. Coughlin, poet laureate of the Chicago city council today introduced a resolution memorializing congress to modify the Volstead act to "give us personal liberty" in place of moonshine death.

"There are two deaths every day from moonshine," said the poet-laureate, familiarly known as "Bathhouse John" or "The Bath" in pleading for restoration of beer and light wine.

A lively discussion followed and Alderman John Toman declared those partly responsible for the prohibition law "are on their way to the penitentiary for bribery."

The resolution was sent to the judiciary committee.

TRYING TO SOLVE THEFT OF MAIL POUCH

(By The Associated Press)
OTTAWA, Ill., March 7.—Federal and local authorities today were attempting to solve the theft of a pouch of registered mail which disappeared from the 21 railway station Saturday.

The pouch was said to contain scores of checks for men employed in Ottawa factories by Chicago corporations. It is believed that the pouch was taken from a truck on the station platform while the baggage man was at the other end of the mail car collecting bags containing second class mail.

The torn top and padlock of the pouch were found in an empty box car late yesterday.

REJECTION OF TREATY RECEIVED CALMLY

(By The Associated Press)
CONSTANTINOPLE, March 7.—(By The Associated Press)—Turkey's rejection of the Lausanne peace treaty, which was not unexpected, has been received calmly in both foreign and native circles in Constantinople. The belief persists that it is still possible to reach a middle ground agreement toward peace. The Ankara government will now proceed to draft a reply to the allies, in which it will continue to insist on proposals within the limitations established by the assembly's debates and Monday night's resolution passed by the assembly, which demands strict adherence to the principles of the national pact on all matters affecting Turkey's absolute independence.

The situation apparently has settled down for an indefinite period of negotiations.

Burton of the University of Michigan, has written a personal letter to each of the 2,000 Michigan alumni in Chicago, asking them to hear his message to be delivered at the annual dinner of the University of Michigan Alumni Association of Chicago, Friday evening March 16.

NATIONAL POLICY ON CONSERVATION OF TIMBER URGED

Sec. Wallace Advocates Development of Supply

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 7.—A national policy to conserve and develop American timber supplies was urged today by Secretary Wallace of the department of agriculture and Hugh B. Baker, executive secretary of the American Paper and Pulp association in opening hearings of the special senate committee on reforestation.

Day of self-sustaining supplies lumber have passed in the United States the committee was told by Secretary Wallace, who declared that a scientific and economic program of conservation and reforestation must be prosecuted. Fire protection and reduced taxes to stimulate forestry development were the principal measures proposed by the secretary and Mr. Baker.

Mr. Wallace also suggested federal acquisition and development of a large part of the existing 81,000,000 acres of barren cut-over timber land.

With an annual consumption of seven million tons of paper annually with an embargo on pulpwood threatened in Canada and with constantly decreasing domestic supplies, Mr. Baker told the committee that reforestation was a vital problem to the paper industry.

"We feel that we are facing fifty lean years," said he, "declaring that planting of trees on unused lands east of the Mississippi and north of the Potomac rivers would insure an adequate supply of pulpwood and also would enable the United States to become an exporter. Twenty per cent of the pulpwood now consumed in the United States," he added, "is imported."

On the face of the conditions already admitted in the diplomatic exchange it was pointed out, Germany has paid twice over the army costs which constitute her first fiscal obligation under the treaty. The allied governments as a matter of bookkeeping, however, have credited some of these payments against reparations accounts in which the United States had no share. It appears to be the American position that in doing so the allies assumed the burden of working out a means of meeting the American army costs out of receipts from Germany in a way satisfactory to themselves and to the United States. The Paris discussion is proceeding on that basis.

ONE DEAD. SCORE INJURED, IN FIRE

(By The Associated Press)
PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 7.—One unidentified man was killed, a score were injured and several still were missing late tonight following a fire which destroyed a four story brick building, the first two floors of which were occupied by the Lange Shoe Store, 522 Federal Street, North Side.

The injured, suffering from cuts received from flying glass and in leaping into life nets spread by firemen, were taken to nearby hospitals. Listed among those injured were several girls attending a missionary church meeting on the third floor of the building. They leaped into life nets.

More than twenty-five stone-masons were holding a meeting on the fourth floor when the fire broke out. A number of those at this meeting had been unaccounted for late tonight.

The fire followed a series of heavy blasts on the first floor of the shoe store. The force of the explosions shattered large plate glass windows on the opposite side of the street, the flying glass striking a number of passers-by.

The dead man lost his life when he jumped to the street from a third story window.

The property loss was estimated at $125,000.

COURT REFUSES UNSIGNED WILL

(By The Associated Press)
FREEPORT, Ill., March 7.—County Judge E. E. Loughlin today refused to admit to probate an unsigned document purporting to be the last will of Dr. C. L. Mease, who died a year ago. Dr. Mease, who left an estate valued at a quarter of a million dollars had two friends sign the will as witnesses but did not sign it himself. The bulk of the estate under the terms of the will would go to the Freeport Park district and Kings Daughters Settlement House, but the court held Mease died intestate the bulk practically goes to Mease's half sister, Mrs. Laura Thorpe of Williamsburg, Va.

COMPLETE JURY IN MURDER TRIAL

Chicago, March 7.—The jury to try Mrs. Tillie Kilmek and Mrs. Nellie Koulik, cousins, charged with the murder of Frank Kupozyk, third husband of Mrs. Kilmek, was completed today and opening statements to the jury will be made tomorrow. The bodies of a number of relatives, children and former husbands of the two women were exhumed and examined during an investigation by authorities working on the theory that the defendant's had poisoned the relatives to collect insurance. Poison was found to be present in some of the exhumed bodies.

PARIS REPORTS DISCOUNTED BY THE GOVERNMENT

Report That Payments for Troops Challenged,
Not Believed

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 7.—Unofficial reports from Paris to the effect that the claim of the United States to participation in payments already made by Germany for maintenance of allied and American troops on the Rhine have been challenged at the conference now in progress, are discounted in Washington official circles as founded on misinformation.

It was pointed out today that in the correspondence which led to the conference on army costs with assistant Wadsworth of the treasury representing the United States the justice of the American claim was promptly admitted by the allied governments which suggested the conference.

The purpose of the Paris discussion, it was added, was specifically to seek ways and means of providing for the refunding to the United States of Rhineland army costs in a way best calculated to meet the economic plight of the allied governments. Negotiations to that end are now proceeding and state department officials are advised of what transpires at the conference. The amount due the United States for the Rhine army cost is roughly one billion gold marks.

How the payment of that sum is to be arranged by the allies is the question to be solved at Paris. It was said, as in asserting the claim to a full share in the payments, the state department made it plain that the Washington government was not disposed to be a harsh creditor and was anxious to arrive at an understanding with the allies that would not communicate further the difficult economic problems.

On the face of the conditions already admitted in the diplomatic exchange it was pointed out, Germany has paid twice over the army costs which constitute her first fiscal obligation under the treaty. The allied governments as a matter of bookkeeping, however, have credited some of these payments against reparations accounts in which the United States had no share. It appears to be the American position that in doing so the allies assumed the burden of working out a means of meeting the American army costs out of receipts from Germany in a way satisfactory to themselves and to the United States. The Paris discussion is proceeding on that basis.

SECOND ORDER IS ISSUED BY CHIEF

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 7.—Chief of Police Charles Fitzmorris tonight issued his second general order in connection with his campaign against disorderly houses in the form of advice to commanding officers and men under them that charges will be preferred against them unless they carry out the general orders issued two days ago. These were to the effect that policemen were to be stationed at the front and back doors of all disorderly houses in the commanding officer's district and that the places were to be kept closed.

Forty additional policemen were detailed today to stations asking for more help in vice work and tonight police records showed 215 patrolmen were engaged in watching disorderly houses.

Except for the orders directed to Chicago's more than 5,000 policemen after Chief Justice Michael McKinley had intimated that he expected to bring vice conditions before a grand jury for the third time, Chief Fitzmorris has refused to comment on the drive he is waging.

Two of the victims were found dead in snow banks. The third slipped from an icy platform and was killed by a train.

CORONER'S JURY RETURNS VERDICT

Venice, Cal., March 7.—Whether Arline Zimmerly, former artist model ended her own life in an apartment here, Sunday night or was slain by another, remained a mystery tonight when a coroner's jury returned a verdict.

"Death by gunshot wound" but admitted its inability to decide from the evidence presented whether the case was one of murder or suicide.

TO INVESTIGATE FOREIGN FARM TRADE OUTLOOK

Will Also Consider New Sources of Supply on U. S. Soil

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 7.—Exporters of agricultural products and representatives of agriculture organizations are being asked by the commerce department, Secretary Hoover announced tonight to serve on a special commission that will investigate the foreign trade outlook for farmers. Under an appropriation of $500,000 made by congress to investigate what combinations are in existence or in process of formation abroad to hold up the price of raw products, such as rubber, which are imported into the United States in large quantities and to consider whether new sources of supply can be developed on American soil. The department thus authorized the make a special study of the international trade situation with respect to agriculture.

"Agricultural produce comprises about one-half of our total exports," a department statement said. "During the last three years there has been an apparently slight over production in the United States which seriously affects agricultural prices and the question arises as to how temporary this situation may be and what the future prospects are."

"During the ten years before 1913, our production did not keep up with our consumption and the increased consumption was reflected in a decreasing margin of exportable surplus to an average of about 6,500,000 tons per annum just before the war. In the ten years since that time, production has steadily increased, not only sufficiently to provide for 13,000,000 increase in population but so that exports have increased to about 17,000,000 tons per annum. In the meantime, the farm population has not kept pace with the general population."

"The increased agricultural production is due to nearly 20 per cent increased output per farmer."

"It is proposed that there should be an exhaustive investigation of the facts as to the proportion of exports to the total of each crop, those facts which bear upon the trend of increased production and increasing consumption at home, the gradual shifting in the world's demand for different foodstuffs, the tendency of agricultural production abroad, the finance of exports, the bearing of various trade factors upon the whole question of foreign marketing, the better preparation of produce for foreign markets and aids to export the possibilities of shipment to destination instead of rehandling in foreign countries, and various factors in understanding of the changing character of the market which the American farmers must meet."

PRESIDENT FINDS WHAT HE IS SEEKING

(By The Associated Press)
DAYTONE, Fla., March 7.—President Harding today found what he is seeking in Florida—quiet and recreation. The flurry incident to the arrival at Ormond yesterday had passed and the President and Mrs. Harding with the members of their vacation party were permitted to obtain uninterrupted rest. After a night spent aboard the houseboat Flamingo just south of Daytona, the chief executive, with his host, Edward B. McLean, chairman of the board of the shipping board and former Director Dawes of the budget bureau, came ashore and motored to Seabreeze for a game of golf.

The Pioneer with Mrs. Harding and other members of the party aboard proceeded down the river and anchored off New Smyrna. The president after a round of golf motored to New Smyrna and went aboard about 1 o'clock. Almost the entire winter colony there was on hand at the dock to greet him and to catch a glimpse of Mrs. Harding, who appeared on deck shortly before the arrival of the president. An hour after the president had boarded the Pioneer the cruise down the river was resumed.

The next stopping place of the president was not announced before the departure from New Smyrna. The president, it was emphasized today by members of his party, has established no absolutely fixed schedule and the most can be gotten from a vacation when such matters are left to a day-by-day arrangement.

People who are protesting about grave snatching when they talk of King Tut's tomb must have been in search a long time for a grievance. After the passage of more than 3,000 years, and when the historical value of the research is taken into account, surely there is no indignity to the ancients in the recent investigations.

It is not surprising that some complaints come from the farmers with reference to taxes, when comparative figures are taken into consideration. Back in 1913 the average rate of taxation on lands for state and county purposes was 56c and now it is $1.23. The increases in Illinois and other states during the period mentioned are said to be 126 per cent.

It is gratifying to know that the adjutant general's office has taken the action necessary to secure an adequate armory for the local howitzer company. The leasing of quarters in the Elmhurst building assures the company fine quarters and will mean that the company will be retained for Jacksonville and will increase in efficiency.

Fred Stone, long famous as a comedian, has "hit the sawdust trail." Stone in a modest statement has explained that after a period of introspection he was readily convinced that he was not measuring up to life's responsibilities. He had several talks with a minister and then came his decision. The stamp of sincerity is given to the comedian's action because he is already making plans to devote one-tenth of his income and property to Christian and philanthropic work and he is very wealthy. That is a test that many of the trial hitters cannot meet complacently.

There is much talk of unemployment in England. Yet England has not filled her quota of emigrants to the United States, where there is a scarcity of labor. Manifestly, some Englishmen prefer their own country in idleness than America with profitable employment.

The public recently had its attention directed to the action of a judge in New York who refused to impose any fines upon four socially prominent men who had been convicted of bootlegging. The men were given jail sentences in addition. The action of the judge has been generally commended on the ground that an example should be made of "higher ups." But the public has not had its attention called to the character of the argument made by the prosecuting attorney, who, it will appear, was largely responsible for the punishment by imprisonment as well as by fine. The U. S. District Attorney said in summing up:

"To allow these defendants to escape with a fine, it seems to me would be a travesty on justice and a mockery of the majesty of the law. It would announce to the public that even Federal Judges were complaisant toward the widespread reign of lawless anarchy in New York City. It would mean an equality before the law had disappeared, and would justify the belief that men of great wealth or influence or power are above the law."

After an argument like that by the prosecuting attorney, it is difficult to imagine how the judge could have done other than impose jail sentences. President Harding has been appealing to the officers of the law to secure enforcement. He has been appealing to the people of the country for law observance.

A HOPEFUL VIEW
B. C. Forbes writing in the magazine which bears his name, takes a hopeful view of European conditions. It is comforting indeed to have someone say something about Europe which is not doleful. Here are a few Forbes sentences:
"Daily, daily war alarms are raised, Russia is to unleash her many-millioned army. Turkey is to run amuck. Germany is being driven to the fighting point. Today it is this, yesterday it was that, tomorrow it will be the next Balkan or other nation that is ready to embark on the warpath. The whole of Europe, we are shrilly told, is a military citadel; or rather, a volcano, about to burst into bloodshed."
"I don't believe it. I don't believe Russia will come to either Germany's or Turkey's aid. I don't believe Turkey will attempt to fight the Allies. I don't believe that Germany will wage war against France. I don't believe that Europe is on the brink of another blood-bath."
"I believe that Europe has had all the hostilities she can stand. I believe that Europe has used up about all her material and all her thirst for war. I believe the peoples of Europe are bent upon peace, upon recuperation, upon domestic and industrial tranquility. I believe, too, that Lenin and Trotsky have had enough of militarism and long for the restoration of conditions permitting them safely to disband the greater part of their armies."
"Is this view crazy? Perhaps. We'll see."

It is not surprising that some complaints come from the farmers with reference to taxes, when comparative figures are taken into consideration. Back in 1913 the average rate of taxation on lands for state and county purposes was 56c and now it is $1.23. The increases in Illinois and other states during the period mentioned are said to be 126 per cent.

It is gratifying to know that the adjutant general's office has taken the action necessary to secure an adequate armory for the local howitzer company. The leasing of quarters in the Elmhurst building assures the company fine quarters and will mean that the company will be retained for Jacksonville and will increase in efficiency.

Fred Stone, long famous as a comedian, has "hit the sawdust trail." Stone in a modest statement has explained that after a period of introspection he was readily convinced that he was not measuring up to life's responsibilities. He had several talks with a minister and then came his decision. The stamp of sincerity is given to the comedian's action because he is already making plans to devote one-tenth of his income and property to Christian and philanthropic work and he is very wealthy. That is a test that many of the trial hitters cannot meet complacently.

There is much talk of unemployment in England. Yet England has not filled her quota of emigrants to the United States, where there is a scarcity of labor. Manifestly, some Englishmen prefer their own country in idleness than America with profitable employment.

The public recently had its attention directed to the action of a judge in New York who refused to impose any fines upon four socially prominent men who had been convicted of bootlegging. The men were given jail sentences in addition. The action of the judge has been generally commended on the ground that an example should be made of "higher ups." But the public has not had its attention called to the character of the argument made by the prosecuting attorney, who, it will appear, was largely responsible for the punishment by imprisonment as well as by fine. The U. S. District Attorney said in summing up:

"To allow these defendants to escape with a fine, it seems to me would be a travesty on justice and a mockery of the majesty of the law. It would announce to the public that even Federal Judges were complaisant toward the widespread reign of lawless anarchy in New York City. It would mean an equality before the law had disappeared, and would justify the belief that men of great wealth or influence or power are above the law."

After an argument like that by the prosecuting attorney, it is difficult to imagine how the judge could have done other than impose jail sentences. President Harding has been appealing to the officers of the law to secure enforcement. He has been appealing to the people of the country for law observance.

Fellowship of Prayer
Daily Lenten Bible reading and meditation prepared for Commission on Evangelism of Federal Council of Churches.
THURSDAY
Beloved of the Father
"This is my beloved son; hear ye him." Mark 9:7.
Read Mark 9:2-13.
The reasons for thinking him divine are solid and colossal facts, which even a wayfaring man can see.
MEDITATION: The spirit of Christ is not a matter of creedal statement but of fact. His power to renew lives is of the very nature of God. Others may introduce us to Him, but it is His power that strengthens us.
HYMN:
Lord of all being, throned afar,
Thy glory flames from sun and star;
Center and soul of ev'ry sphere,
Yet to each loving heart how near.
PRAYER: The day returns and brings us the petty round of irritating concerns and duties. Help us to play the man. Help us to perform them with laughter and kind faces. Let cheerfulness abound with industry. Give us to go blithely on our business all this day. Bring us to our resting beds weary, and content, and undisturbed. And grant us in the end the gift of sleep. Amen.

HEAVY HOGS MAKE GOOD SHOWING
Figures Presented Indicate That Packers, Do Not Discriminate Against Heavy Animals.
Austin B. Patterson, one of the Poland China hog growers of Morgan county and proprietor of Mapleview farm, has called attention to some figures recently issued with reference to a packers' carcass contest. The figures are quoted in order to make answer to the charge that the packers demand bacon hogs and that the big types are not profitable to the grower.
The statement to which Mr. Patterson calls attention is given below.
Recently on Mr. Patterson's farm three aged sows farrowed 42 pigs and 10 farrowed 69 pigs. Our farm journals and newspaper carry numerous contributions and editorials regarding what is said to be an essential change which must be made in the type of hog which farmers must raise for market. They say farmers must raise hogs which will meet the packers' demand, and that demand is for a "bacon" or "meat type" hog. They say the big type hog no longer is profitable for the farmer because it is not the kind of hog the packer wants.
I believe this propaganda is absolutely misleading.
The Chicago packers promote and support a Swine Carcass Contest every year at the International Livestock Exposition, the barrow at the 1922 Exposition which dressed out the highest percentage of edible meat, with seven breeds competing, was a big type Poland China, and all the barrows of the same breed made a higher average dressing out percentage than the barrows of any other breed, "bacon" and "meat types" included.
Mr. B. H. Heide, Secretary of the International, has released the figures for the 1922 Carcass Contest, the tabulated results of which follow:
17 Poland China barrows, dressing out percentage, 82.7.
11 Hampshire barrows, dressing out percentage, 82.5.
14 Berkshire barrows, dressing out percentage, 82.1.
6 Tamworth barrows, dressing out percentage, 81.7.
18 Chester White barrows, dressing out percentage, 81.3.
5 Duroc Jersey barrows, dressing out percentage, 78.6.
2 Spotted P. C. barrows, dressing out percentage, 78.2.

There were about fifty present for the banquet, which was served by the girls of the home economics class, taught by Miss Laughlin. The girls served in a faultless manner and gave indication of the very excellent training they are receiving.

Chamber of Commerce News

Partial reports from the committee at work in the supplementary membership drive of the Chamber of Commerce indicate that the following have taken out membership in the organization: Andrew Leck, J. W. Bap-tiste, Coal company; A. B. Smith Auto Inn; Jacksonville-Spring-Field Bus Line; Smith's Meat Market; Dr. George Baxter, Por-table Hog Fence Company; F. J. Kaiser.

A great number of the committee have not yet reported and it is estimated that the supplementary drive will not about twenty five new members.

The tourists' reception committee of the Chamber of Commerce met Wednesday afternoon and placed orders for the construction and painting of the signs to mark the city tour. The signs will be oval boards painted white with black lettering and containing a raised red dot indicating the direction. The E. H. Bridge Co. has donated the material and arrows for these signs and will construct them, donating also the time spent. The signs will be placed as soon as completed.

One change has been made in the route of the city tour. It was found that if the route turned north at Fayette street, an adequate view of the front of the high school building could not be obtained. It has been decided, therefore, to mark the tour north on Church street, west past the Capps Woolen Mills, south on Fayette street and back onto West State street and thence proceeding west in front of the high school building.

The next big membership meeting of the Chamber of Commerce is to be held on Thursday evening, March 15, Frank Jewell Raymond, noted speaker and orator of East Orange, New Jersey, has been secured to make an address at this time to all Chamber of Commerce, business executives and their employees on the subject, "Business Mastery." It is the ambition of Membership Chairman J. H. Dial and his committee to make this if possible, a better meeting than the recent pep meeting.

M. C. Hook, H. J. Rodgers, H. C. Welch, John Lazenby, Larry Baldwin, Frank Mawson and a number of other local people are going to Springfield today to attend a luncheon at the St. Nicholas Hotel in the interest of the State Police Bill. The meeting has been called by the Illinois Chamber of Commerce and will be attended by representatives from all over the state.

Secretary Welch of the Chamber of Commerce will also attend the two day convention of the Illinois Commercial secretaries' association in Springfield Thursday and Friday of this week.

Kiwanis Club to Consider Project At Meeting Today — Would Form Organization Among High School Students, to Educate Along Business Lines.

A plan to organize a Junior Chamber of Commerce among students of the local high school was formulated yesterday noon at a meeting of the board of directors of the Kiwanis club. The plan will be submitted to the club membership at the regular meeting today, and will doubtless receive hearty approval.

The project contemplates the organization of a bona fide Chamber of Commerce among the young people, with all its officers, board of directors, departments and committees. The aim of the plan is to educate the young people in the workings of such a body and instill in them the principles of business management and organization.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce, if organized would be modeled upon the plan of the Boy's Brotherhood Republics of Chicago. These have been in existence for several years, and have been quite successful. The boys elect their mayor and city council; they have their chief of police, their fire department, and all other activities of a city government.

Six new members are to be voted on at the meeting of the Kiwanis club today. An interesting program has been prepared, and the principal speaker will be Senator Earl B. Searcy, who represents this district in the state senate.

ATTENTION K. of C.
Regular meeting tonight, 8 o'clock. Business of unusual importance. Big attendance desired.

LOCAL REVENUE OFFICE MOVING TO AYERS BLOCK

COMMUNICATION

Editor Jacksonville Journal— I am interested in the question now before the agricultural convention concerning fixing the price of farm products by the United States and Canada, especially in wheat, corn and oats on the basis of cost of production.

Every business man figures the cost of goods bought and then sells them at a reasonable profit. Why should the farmer buy land at a high price, pay interest on money invested, toll hard for a crop of grain and then let the middle man come in, speculate, profiteer and gamble or the hard earnings of the so-called farmer. They will say a once, let the law of supply and demand be applied, but in this day of profiteering this old rule is being painfully ignored and selfish greed has taken its place, by the men who want something for nothing.

Congress is undertaking to create a loan or credit system for the farmer who is heavily involved, which is perfectly proper and right. Every business man must have credit, but what is the use of loaning money to the man who is engaged in farming or any other business, who is operating at a loss—better add to the loan—fixing the price of farm products so he can have a reasonable return for his labor. It was done at the time of the World war. Why not in time of peace.

Let us give the farmer a fair price for his products so he may prosper and then every other business will prosper too. The convention suggests this plan: A committee may be appointed by the United States, together with Canada represented and in the month of May when the wheat crop is assured, fix the price in the leading markets of the world for six months or one year. So also with corn and oats in the season when the crops are matured. In this way the speculator, the gambler, would be out of the game and the farmer would be on a basis of profit and not subject to fluctuating prices by the changing of the wind clouds in the sky and three of four days sunshine in succession, used by the Board of Trade for selfish gain.

I see no reason why the Farm Bureau should not take this question up at once. They have worked hard and faithfully for an increase in production. Now why not work for the stability of the price of farm products at a reasonable profit and not leave it to the other fellow to play on.

If I was a young man engaged in farming, I would join every organization known, working in the interest of better prices for farm produce, as I sincerely believe the day is past for leaving this proposition to the greed of those who profit by our neglect.

CITY PLANNERS IN FINANCE MEETING

Committee of Three Consider Raising of $3,600 to Employ City Plan Engineer.

Ways and means of raising $3,600 for the employment of city planning engineer to make the plan for Jacksonville, were considered and put in shape at a meeting Tuesday afternoon. The finance sub-committee of the City Plan Commission gathered in the Chamber of Commerce headquarters and had a thorough discussion of the matter. The committee consists of H. J. Rodgers, chairman, C. Y. Rowe and Mrs. Lillian J. Danskin.

The plan will be submitted to the Commission at its regular monthly meeting Friday evening. It is proposed to employ the plan expert as soon as possible, and the raising of funds will begin immediately.

The committee also considered a number of names as possible members of the commission. New members are to be added Friday evening, bringing the total up to twenty.

It is believed that it will require a year for an expert to make an adequate city plan for Jacksonville. The money to be raised is to pay his salary and other necessary expenses of the work.

LENGLEN BREEZES THRU THE SINGLES

MENTONE, France, March 7.—Suzanne Lenglen was the bright star on the third day of the Mentone tennis tournament. The champion breezed thru four sets of singles without the loss of a game and paired with Miss Elizabeth Ryan, reached the third round of the women's doubles by defeating Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Harrison, 6-0, 6-0.

Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, the American champion continued her hitless playing, losing the mixed doubles notwithstanding the wonderful game her partner, Baron De Morpurgo. This match was taken by Miss Ryan and Randolph Lyett, 6-2, 7-5.

A definite perspective of the playing of Lenglen and Mallory will be had tomorrow when Suzanne meets Miss Cadie, the English girl, who put Miss Mallory out of the singles competition on Tuesday.

JACKSONVILLE HIGH PLAYS I. S. D. TONIGHT

Local Squads Will Clash in David Prince Gymnasium—Both First and Second Teams Play.

Two games that should prove of unusual interest to basketball fans will be played in David Prince gymnasium this evening.

The teams are from the local high school and the Illinois school for the deaf. Coach Mitchell and Coach Burns made tentative arrangements some weeks ago but the definite date was not set because of the district tournament.

Had Jacksonville won that she would have been tied up until after the sectional tournament, and in case of going thru the sectional she would have been tied up until after the state tournament.

The games tonight will be between the first and second teams of the schools. The first team game will start at 7:15 o'clock and will be followed by the second team game.

We don't know just what the calibre of the second I. S. D. team but having seen both of the first squads in action we would say that the first team game should be a corker with lots of action and the winner undecided until the game has progressed toward the close. On the other hand one team may run away with the game from the jump.

The local high school has a good second string squad and should give a good account of itself in the afterpiece. However, Coach Burns may also have some good men under cover and spring a surprise on Mitchell's seconds.

Religion and Youth

A basketball tournament can draw its followers from far and near and create a hurricane of youthful enthusiasm, that centers about the winning team, but mention the one word, "religion," and the shouting dies, the crowd departs and a lone candle flickers near the altar.

Two millenniums have gone since a great teacher, poor but potential, was interrogated by a lone pupil, rich, but receptive, who asked what good thing he must do to be numbered with the children of the just. The unrecognized rabbi said that two things were required to enter the realm of rectitude. One was to "Keep" and the other was to "Give." Keep the moral code, give until it hurts—a thing which cannot be done without recognizing Christ as Lord and Master.

And the young student went away, his attitude proving that the test was too hard. Have the churches been crude oiling the Narrow Way, as an inducement to the youth to step on the gas and come home? Have our schools and colleges reached the point of embalming mothers religion, the religion of a pious, but a foolish old soul? Are we to have a "revival of concern" in the near future, when parents will be as much concerned in the spiritual welfare of their children as they are in their educational development? Many a parent will tie his dog in the kennel and shut his cat in the cellar, and then let his boy and girl run loose at night, and proceed to call down fire on the church when his children go wrong. What Jacksonville, needs is an old fashioned "spanking week," with the slap sticks applied to the parents. Because parents had no concern for their children, the whole race went wrong, and Calvary was the result. Will a hundred homes in Jacksonville have a Christless Easter this year? The Pre-Easter Union Evangelistic Meetings at Grace M. E. Church, March 12th, to 25th, may help to turn the faces of the boys and girls of the city toward the cross of the Redeemer, if father and mother cares.

A. P. HOWELLS, First Baptist Church.

Morgan County, inspected the seed shown at the farm bureau office, got in touch with the growers and bought nearly 100 bushels without ever seeing the grower. He sent an honest goodness draft to the farm advisor, authorized him to pay for the seed whenever the grower brought in the bill of lading. H. W. Petefish of Litterberry, J. G. Moore of Sinclair, George Deere and Leake Brothers of Franklin sold their seed in this way.

RECORD NUMBER OF NOMINATIONS

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 7.—A record number of nominations for the forty-ninth annual running of the Kentucky derby at Churchill Downs, 145 made up of 102 colts, 22 fillies, and 21 geldings, was announced here tonight. The derby, the oldest fixture of the American turf will be contested by three year olds over a mile and a quarter, May 19.

That the derby nominations this year would exceed the 109 named in 1920 previously the largest number since the stake became a late closing event was the prediction of horsemen who pointed to lack of decisiveness in the racing last year of two year olds.

How the Farm Bureau Marketed Soybeans—Four farmers in the vicinity of Franklin pooled their shipment, sent it with a sight draft attached to a bill of lading, had the returns come back to their local bank and cleared up the marketing of the beans without any delay. Altho the price was not as great as asked for by seed houses yet, the men got what they asked for.

Mr. and Mrs. David McCarty of 935 North Main street celebrated their twenty-second wedding anniversary with a party given at their home Tuesday evening. BODIES OF DEPUTY SHERIFFS FOUND BY POSSE WEDNESDAY

Buried in Swamp Near Where Moonshiner Still Was Destroyed

(By The Associated Press)

FRANKLIN TOWN, La., March 7.—Bullet pierced and tramped down by booted feet, the bodies of Wesley Crain and Wiley Pierce, deputy sheriffs of Washington Parish, slain by moonshiners, they had captured at a still in the swamps eight miles east of here last Saturday morning were found early today buried in a shallow grave a mile from the destroyed still.

The carcass of a cow had been dragged on top of Crain's body. The body of Pierce had been pressed down in the 18 inches of mud and slush.

John Murphy and Gideon Rester, two of the men rounded up by a posse yesterday, are accused by the authorities of the crime. An official statement credited to the Franklinton authorities is that both men confessed.

A special session of the grand jury to investigate the killing has been summoned for tomorrow. Sheriff J. E. Bateman of Washington tonight placed a guard of heavily armed men around the jail here in which besides Murphy and Rester, are confined ten other suspects taken into custody during the last few days. The bodies of the two deputies were found buried a few feet apart, that of Pierce having been mutilated with an axe or some other sharp instrument.

The confessions of the two men followed a long grill by the authorities, Judge Prentiss E. Carter of the district court announced. The questioning of the prisoners brought statements that the two deputies had come to their homes Saturday morning, raided the still and placed them under arrest. Murphy and Rester were searched and the party started on foot thru the swamp. At a narrow lane they were forced to walk single file. Murphy, said Judge Carter, stated, he pulled a pistol the deputies had missed in their search and shot Pierce, killing him and then slaying Crain.

The finding of the bodies and the confessions brought to an end the greatest posse search ever staged in Louisiana, in which approximately 1,000 residents of Washington Parish, including members of a troop cavalry from Bogalusa have been engaged since Monday morning.

CONGRATULATES CLUB ON PROPOSED PROGRAM

President of American Tree Association Commends Local Kiwanis Club in Developing Interest in Tree Planting in County.

Mention was made recently of the action of the Kiwanis club in developing Morgan county interest in tree planting. The club proposes to work actively along this line and already committees have interviewed land owners resident along the hard roads in the county, and practically all have shown their interest in the program and will co-operate.

Russell T. Edwards, director of the education section of the American Tree association, has recently transmitted to Dr. W. P. Duncan chairman of the Kiwanis tree planting committee, a letter from Charles Lathrop Pack, who is the president of the National Association, congratulating the local club on the program proposed.

Mr. Pack's letter reads as follows: Dr. W. P. Duncan, Memorial Tree Committee, The Kiwanis Club, Jacksonville, Ill. Mr. Dear Dr. Duncan: Please extend to the Kiwanis Club the congratulations of the American Tree Association on its plan for tree planting.

I am sending you an application blank for membership in the Association and the only way to join is to plant a tree and this year are about to do. You can have as many more application blanks as you can put to good use. I want to call your attention to the tree day program that I am sending you.

Our call this year to celebrate the centennial of Arbor Day fifty years before it happens by planting the trees now has met with a remarkable response thruout the country and we are glad indeed to see the Jacksonville Kiwanis Club in line in this and we want a full registration for the trees planted. You can easily vision what a memorial those who see the centennial of Arbor Day will enjoy.

The Roads of Remembrance idea has been taken up in many places. It means the planting of highways particularly with walnut trees. The Women's Club of York County, Pa. planted twenty-five miles of the Lincoln Highway. The West Coast Road has been planted for fifteen miles by the Rotary Club at Tampa, Fla. The Kiwanis Club at Aberdeen, Washington holds the record thus far reported to us by the planting of one thousand trees. Please keep us posted of what you do there for we can use it in our nation-wide campaign.

Very Sincerely,
CHARLES LATHROP PACK
President.

COMMUNITY PIG CLUB FOR DISTRICT

Was Decided Upon at Meeting of Board of Commercial Division Of the Chamber of Commerce.

A community pig club project to be staged in the interest of the boys and girls of the Jacksonville district and in the interest of Jacksonville as a trading center, was decided upon yesterday morning at a special meeting of the executive board of the commercial division of the Chamber of Commerce. At this meeting committees were appointed to take up the work of making final arrangements for this project.

This pig club project was unanimously endorsed at a mass meeting of Jacksonville merchants held at the first of the week. The plan now calls for the giving away of about 100 pigs and portable hog cuttings in order that one may be given away in each of the different communities in the Jacksonville trading area. Each outfit to be given away is valued at about $250, and includes one pure bred pig with pedigree papers valued at $75, portable hog house, portable fence and trough which retails at $175. It is thought by the merchants that this will be an equal, if not greater trade extension project than the recent gift campaign.

This project will probably begin between the first and fifteenth of April and will continue for a number of weeks. A hog and outfit will be given away to the boy or girl in each community getting the largest number of votes. Each ten cent purchase of merchandise will entitle the holder of the ticket to one vote.

The executive committee for this pig project is chairmaned by L. S. Reid and includes H. M. Andre, J. W. Merrigan, L. T. Hamilton, C. E. Segner, Fletcher Hopper, Dennis Schram, Edward Tomlinson, A. R. Taylor, L. L. Loren and L. F. Randall. The field committee chairman is J. L. Henry and the personnel of the committee includes Hubert Vesconcellos, L. A. Reed, George B. Kendall, and H. E. Ktner.

A mass meeting of all merchants in the city has been called for Tuesday evening, March 13, at 7:30, to further explain this project and make more definite plans.

For a number of years Mr. Crow made his home in Jacksonville and was highly regarded in the community.

MERCHANTS' EXPOSITION

At The Auto Inn In Jacksonville

March 7 to 12 Inclusive

THAT'S WHAT THEY'LL BE SAYING

Beautifully decorated, brilliantly lighted, with a magnificently varied number of interesting exhibits, the Auto Inn, on the occasion of the Fourth Annual Auto Show and Merchants' Exposition beginning next Monday, will indeed be an inspiring sight, well worth driving a hundred or more miles to visit.

These shows are given under the auspices of the Jacksonville Automotive Dealers Association with the co-operation of the city's progressive business men. The public is well acquainted with the splendid success of previous affairs of this nature and is assured that it will not be disappointed on this occasion.

It is also well known that there is no pecuniary profit in these shows for any member of the association or for the business men interested except insofar as you may wish to purchase some of the wares shown.

The first object of these shows is social and the offering of clean and interesting entertainment and diversion following the more or less shut-in months of winter.

The show will be open daily from 10 a. m. until 10 p. m., and there is no admission charge.

Every evening, for those who delight in dancing, opportunity will be afforded on the upper floor. These dances will be under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. O. Spaulding. Music will be in charge of Warfield Brown, Jr.

No doubt the readers of the Journal are kept well informed, about the happenings in Murrayville, as the town correspondent is ably assisted by one of the rural correspondents, hence, items appear in print the second time headed Murrayville. SPRING OPENING COMMITTEE MET

The committee in charge of the spring opening and window display met Wednesday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce and authorized the sending of a letter to every merchant in the business district, whether a member of the Chamber of Commerce or not, urging his co-operation in the spring opening event on March 12. The letter will also explain some of the details of the plan, the hour when the windows will be undraped and other items of interest to the merchants.

The committee selected a tentative list of twelve judges to act in awarding the prizes to be given for the best windows. The names of these judges will be announced at a later date. The window trimmers in the city are showing a great deal of enthusiasm in this spring display and it is expected that the downtown streets will be crowded with window shoppers on the evening of March 12 when the windows are undraped.

STUDENTS RECEIVE THEIR GRADE CARDS

The students of the high school will receive their grade cards on Thursday evening of this week, March 8. Other pupils of the system will receive their grade cards on Monday evening, March 12. All parents should see to it that these cards are brought home and properly signed. Frequently parents complain about not having had notice that their boy or girl was not doing passing work when the grade cards have been sent out with failing marks on them every six weeks during the school year. Most parents see the children's grade cards but when it is found that a parent has not seen the grade card of his child it seems that the responsibility for not seeing the card cannot be placed upon the teachers of the school. Co-operation of the parents and teachers to this extent is very necessary if the students are to feel that someone besides merely their teachers are interested in their school work.

unsettled feeling developed today. Dealers became free sellers and buyers took only enough to fill orders on hand. Stocks were well cleaned up however, and some buyers had difficulty in supplying their needs.

Many lots of 92 score sold at 48 cents and premiums were often received on scores below 90. The car market was very quiet and easy. Closing prices,

NEW YORK, March 7.—Conflicting price movements, reflecting the play of opposing speculative forces characterized today's stock market. Heavy profit-taking and short selling during the morning was founded, in part on unconfirmed rumors that another increase in the local federal reserve re-discount rate was impending. The reaction was checked when it became known that representative bankers had stated that no further rise was likely at this time. Speculators for the advance then stepped in and began bidding up individual shares, particularly in the equipment, rubber and oil groups. The campaign for high prices was based on the unusually favorable weekly steel and iron trade reviews, easier money rates and an increase in the Stromberg Carburetor dividend from five to seven per cent. Profit-taking set in again, however, in the late dealings making the close irregular.

Trading in rails was again sluggish and reactionary. Call money opened at five per cent and then eased off to 4 1/2 where it closed. Time money loans were made in limited volume with brokers offering 5 1/2 per cent for all dates and renewals arranged at that figure. The commercial paper was steady. U. S. Bonds were quiet.

WHEAT MADE UNIQUE
RECORD YESTERDAY

CHICAGO, March 7.—Wheat made the unique record today of closing steady at exactly the same prices that were current 24 hours before—May $1.18 1/2 to $1.18 1/2;
July $1.14 1/2 to $1.14 1/2 and Sept.
$1.12 1/2. The unusual standstill in prices resulted from the fact that a majority of traders were in a quandary as to what was likely to be shown by the government report tomorrow on farm reserves. Corn closed at 1/2c decline to a shade advance, oats 1/2c off to 1/2c gain and provisions showing downward tendency owing in the main to lower quotations at Liverpool which in turn were ascribed to increased offerings from Argentina. On the declines here, however, pit speculators took to the buying side and were able to force a moderate advance with the help of a bullish private estimate as to farm reserves of wheat in Kansas. Then the advance tempted selling by commission houses and the upturn was lost as the day drew to an end.
Falling off to the amount of 6-10c, 100 bushels in the estimated total of wheat held on farms in Kansas as compared with a year ago formed the gist of the unofficial report which gave the wheat market noticeable transient strength today.

Zero temperature in some parts of the southwest was also something of a bullish factor. On the other hand, the primary results were again of liberal volume and there was a continued demand.

Corn and oats virtually duplicated the action of wheat. At one stage indications of a good sized shipping business at Omaha gave the corn market here a moderate temporary bulge.

In the provision market liberal shipments of lard and meats
more than counterbalanced weakness of hog

MURRAYVILLE CLUB MEETS WEDNESDAY
The Murrayville Domestic Science club held a regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Wright. The club prayer opened the program of the afternoon and this was followed by a short business session. Roll call was responded to with helps for housekeepers and many helpful hints were given.

The first paper was by Mrs. H. C. Strang, whose subject was "What Good Taste Means in Home Furnishing." This was an excellent paper full of helpful suggestions. The next paper was by Mrs. Vernon Baker on the theme "What is Considered Our Greatest National Waste." This was an unusually interesting paper, the writer bringing out many little known facts. There were thirteen members present, together with one guest, Mrs. Warren Seymour of Detroit, Mich. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, consisting of orange fruit, two kinds of cake and coffee.

Farm Bureau Meetings, motion picture house, Franklin, 2 P. M., Thursday; Opera house, Waverly, 2 P. M., Friday. Motion pictures an organization talk by F. M. Higgins. Bring ladies.

PAST NINETY MARK BUT STILL VIGOROUS

John C. Andras, a real veteran, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Andras came especially for the purpose of talking over income tax matters with a representative of the collectors' office.

It was Oct. 10, 1832, that Mr. Andras was born, so that he is now 91 years of age. His has indeed been a remarkable life, and today the having lived so far beyond the usual span of years, he is vigorous mentally and strong enough physically to attend to many details of his large business affairs.

Mr. Andras, altho assisted by his son, still takes a very active part in the operation of the Andras farm and carries on other business affairs as well.

"These are not very profitable days for farming," Mr. Andras said yesterday, "but we try to do our best and to meet conditions as we find them." Nearly all of the Andras farms are under lease, most of them on a share basis, and he properties are of such extent that they need a vast amount of attention.

Altho generally speaking cattle feeding is not very profitable just now Mr. Andras is feeding several loads of young cattle for spring market. These cattle, mostly Herefords, were purchased in Kansas City last fall averaging in weight about 850 pounds. They are being fed ground alfalfa, together with some other grain, and are taking on weight rapidly. About 350 head of hogs are kept with them. Mr. Andras raises a great deal of white corn of a large type. The ears are of such size that he has found the best results come from grinding.

These days are quite active on the Andras farms as the spring work is now being planned and everything being put in readiness for farming operations on the thousands of acres that Mr. Andras owns.

As mentioned above, Mr. Andras was born Oct. 10, 1832, his boyhood home being at Columbus, Ohio. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Andras, had been natives of Dorset county, England, and came to America about 1828, settling first in New York state. Later they came to Columbus, afterward to St. Louis and then to Manchester, which was in those early days one of the leading trading posts in this state and was on the relay stage line between Jacksonville and St. Louis.

After engaging in business in Manchester in a successful way, for many years, the father, W. S. Andras, became a resident of Jacksonville, his home being on the high ground on South Main street near the corner of Franklin street. His death occurred there in 1883.

Mr. Andras, who has been an active business man thru more than three score years, has found time for a great deal of scientific research work. He is a member of the National Geographic society, a member of the National Botanical association and holds membership in a number of well-known scientific organizations. He has often been abroad and has traveled extensively in the U. S.

For a long period of years he made inspection trips thru the central west to observe crop conditions and to make a report to a Chicago banking institution. In many ways, John C. Andras is quite a wonderful man and at 91 he has much of health and strength and vigor of mentality as marks many men twenty years or more younger.

ALEXANDER WOMAN'S CLUB MET YESTERDAY

Foster, Jacksonville; Mrs. William Foster, Mrs. John Swain, Mrs. Howard Robinson, Mrs. Chris Dahman and Mrs. Mary Reif, all of Alexander.

There were two papers on the afternoon's program, one by Miss Helen Hines entitled "Appreciation of Dante." The other was a back paper and was presented by Mrs. J. L. Profit on "House work made Attractive and Easy." Several Victrola selections made up the musical part of the program. A social hour was enjoyed following the program and the hostess served delicious refreshments at this time.

GIVES FACTS ABOUT SURVEY OF THE DEAF

Institution Quarterly in Recent Issue Gives Article By Col. O. C. Smith of Legal School For Deaf, Telling About State Wide Survey of Deaf Children.

A recent issue of the Institution Quarterly contained an interesting article by Col. O. C. Smith, managing officer of the State School for the Deaf, on the theme, "Survey of the Deaf in Illinois." In the article referred to, Col. Smith gives the facts about a survey now being made all over the state in the endeavor to locate all deaf children in the state who are of school age.

The survey is under the immediate direction of Miss Grace E. Hasenstab, social service field worker and connected with the local institution. The names and addresses of all deaf children in the state are secured and an effort made to place them in the proper institutions as soon as they reach school age.

As a result of the survey it has been learned that many deaf children in the state are being allowed to grow up in utter ignorance. This is due in some cases to unwillingness on the part of the parents to send their children away from home. Many parents are under the impression that children do not receive the proper treatment at the institutions, and it is to these that Miss Hasenstab makes personal visits, explaining just what the school is and exhibiting views of the various buildings and of the social and athletic activities carried on there.

The survey has thus far resulted in a 10 per cent increase in the attendance at the school, but there still remains much to be accomplished. Persons who know of deaf children are asked to send the names and address of such children to Col. Smith at the School for the Deaf.

REVENUE OFFICER COMING NEXT WEEK

Mr. Kilbride, the special revenue agent from Springfield, who has been attending to income tax returns at the local office, has gone out of the city for the remainder of the week. However, he will return here for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, in order that all business may be attended to before next Thursday, March 15, the date by which all income tax returns must be in the hands of the government officials.

JACKSONVILLE LODGE GIVES SECOND RANK

Jacksonville lodge No. 152, Knights of Pythias, held their regular meeting at the quarters in Illinois temple on East State street Wednesday evening. The rank of Esquire was conferred on two candidates.

A special committee is working on plans for the roll call of the lodge, the date for which will be announced soon. There was a good attendance at the meeting last night, and there are prospects for considerable degree work during the remainder of the season.

TO OPEN BEAUTY PARLOR ON WEST STATE STREET

It is understood that a beauty parlor is to be opened at an early date in the building at 311 West State street, which is now the property of George S. Salby. The building was until recently occupied by the grocery store of W. H. Johnson. The latter disposed of the grocery stock to W. D. Richards, who removed it to the Barnhart store building on Greenwood avenue.

STOLEN CAR FOUND.

An abandoned car, which proved to be the property of Charles H. Stevens of Chatham, was found near Arnold Wednesday morning. The machine was stolen Tuesday from Springfield. Thieves who took the car to the city and all evidence of the police brought the car to this city and the owner will probably get it today.

MONKEYS ARE THIRD IN HOOP TOURNEY

The Monkeys won third place in the basketball tournament at the Woman's college in a close game with the Demons last night. Friday night the championship game will be played between the Gorillas and the Fearsomes. On evening the former team beat the Demons by a score of 32 to 18, and the Fearsomes downed the Monkeys by a score of 15 to 10.

FUNERAL NOTICE

The remains of Mrs. Doyle who died in St. Louis arrived over the Chicago and Alton from that city yesterday and were taken to the funeral parlors of J. H. O'Donnell. Funeral services will be held from the Church of Our Savior at 8:30 o'clock Friday morning with burial in Calvary cemetery.

TO EXPLAIN TRAFFIC PLANS TO MERCHANTS

Committee Considers Problems at Meeting Wednesday Evening And Votes to Present Matter to Merchants Next Tuesday—Sub-Body Will Make Rules.

The traffic committee of the Chamber of Commerce met last night to consider the new city traffic map and the plans formed by the advisory committee. After a long discussion, in which every member of the committee took part, it was voted to submit the matter to a general meeting of merchants to be held next Tuesday evening. The meeting already has already been called to talk over a trade extension project, and when this is finished the traffic plan will be presented.

Meanwhile a sub-committee was appointed last night to formulate definite rules and regulations by which the general plan could be put in force. This committee consists of J. W. Merigan, chairman; Lloyd Hamilton, Henry Smith, Chester Joy, William Brady, Chief of Police Frank Kiloran, Robert Birnbaum and Frank Plour.

It seemed to be the general opinion of the traffic committee that the prospective boulevard system is excellent. It was that this should be immediately submitted to the city council and passed as an ordinance. The expense of signals and other features of the system were discussed at length.

The parking plan, however, presented many problems, and it is this portion of the work of the advisory committee that will come for discussion at the general meeting Tuesday evening. It is probable that the plan will undergo some revision in the hands of the rules committee. It was suggested that only by the cooperation of every merchant in the business district in keeping his car out of the parking places on the square and away from the places where parking would be forbidden. This would relieve the square, so that incoming shoppers would have parking space.

It was also suggested that the parking rules be suspended in the evening, and that the radius in which cars could not be parked should be shortened on North Main and West State streets.

Dr. W. P. Duncan presided at the meeting last night. Mayor Crabtree, several members of the city council, and Chief Kiloran were present and entered into the discussion of the problem.

It has been found that a special rate for merchants who wish to park their cars in garages can be secured. A number have already taken advantage of the practice of garages in providing a monthly rate for storing cars during business hours. It was reported at the meeting that a movement is on foot by which physicians may have their cars taken from their offices to a garage and delivered to them on call, thus relieving them of the inconvenience of taking their car to the parking place and saving valuable time. With these provisions and others which might be made, it is believed that the matter of parking cars outside the forbidden zone would not be difficult.

REVIVAL AT MT. EMORY

The revival which is being held at Mt. Emory Baptist church is growing in interest. A large crowd was present to hear Rev. Gore who brought a splendid message on "Blind Bartemus and Zacheus."

The members are confident of a handsome success by the end of the week. At last night's meeting the speaker said, "In all books printed by white men, the Devil is represented as being black, with red eyes, horns, long tail and cloven hoof, but the Devil has disguised himself as an angel of light, and when he appeared to us we did not know him." He also stated that dancing was wrong because if ministers danced they would lose influence over those with whom they danced.

COLONIAL PARTY IS GIVEN AT ROODHOUSE

Members of the Friendship class of the M. E. Sunday school entertained their husbands and friends at a banquet and George Washington party recently. Mrs. J. J. Wintler as George Washington and Mrs. Charles Braznell as Martha Washington, had charge of the social part of the program.

The banquet menu included ham, baked beans, baked potatoes, Boston baked brown bread, and butter sandwiches, tapioca, whipped cream and coffee. This was served in the basement of the church, after which the guests were invited to the main auditorium to witness a colonial minstrel program, put on by the following ladies in colonial costume: Madames Wintler, Braznell, Perry, Campbell, George Richardson, A. E. Cole, Harry A. Ruyle, Guy Langley, E. J. Palmer, J. E. Symons, Walter Shuman and Edward Mitchell.

Mrs. Ruyle served as interlocutor and Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Mitchell as end men, with Mrs. Ricks at the piano. The songs and readings which made up the program were all cleverly presented and the puns were new and snappy. Altogether it was a very enjoyable affair and those present requested that it be repeated at a later date.

A necessary part of your diet

VARIETY in foods is essential, of course, but in providing variety do not overlook the importance of nourishment.

Crisp, delicious Grape-Nuts is a highly nourishing cereal food in unusually compact form. It supplies the rich nutrition of wheat and malted barley, including the mineral elements of these splendid grains, without which health and strength cannot be maintained.

Grape-Nuts, with good milk, is a complete food. Economical, too, because a moderate amount provides unusual nourishment.
